

PRESENT PORTRAIT
TO SUPREME COURT

One of Ex-Associate Justice McRae to Be Presented at Raleigh To-Day.

GLENN ON PROHIBITION

He Speaks at High Point and Leaves for Other Points—Training School Doing Well.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., March 16.—Before the arguments of appeals from the Supreme Court were taken up in the Supreme Court Tuesday morning there will be an incident of unusual interest throughout the State. This will be the presentation of an oil painting of ex-Associate Justice James B. McRae, by ex-Chief Justice James E. Shepard. Judge McRae is now the able dean of law at the University of North Carolina. The Seventh District appeals to be heard this week are: Rutherford vs. Ray, McCaskill vs. Walker, Audit Company vs. McKinnon, Britt vs. Railroad, Brown vs. Railroad, Wade vs. Telephone Company, Organ Company vs. Snyder, Brown vs. Railroad, Talbot vs. Tyson, Beasley vs. Railroad. The Seventh District consists of Columbus, Cumberland, Robeson, Bladen and Brunswick counties.

Speaks on Prohibition.
Governor Glenn left this afternoon for High Point, where to-night he delivered an address in the interest of State prohibition. He said he felt rather like he was "hearing" coal to New Castle. In that High Point was one of the original prohibition strongholds. From High Point he will leave on a night train for Washington, where he will spend one day, and thereafter go to New York and other points east and west, before taking up prohibition campaign work. Dates already fixed for the Governor to speak are: Oxford, March 24th; Selma, March 25th; Trenton, March 26th; Dover, March 27th; Fayetteville, March 28th; Old Port, March 29th; Marion, April 1st; Raleigh, April 2nd; Raleigh, April 3rd; Raleigh, April 4th; Raleigh, April 5th; Raleigh, April 6th; Raleigh, April 7th; Raleigh, April 8th; Raleigh, April 9th; Raleigh, April 10th; Raleigh, April 11th; Raleigh, April 12th; Raleigh, April 13th; Raleigh, April 14th; Raleigh, April 15th; Raleigh, April 16th; Raleigh, April 17th; Raleigh, April 18th; Raleigh, April 19th; Raleigh, April 20th; Raleigh, April 21st; Raleigh, April 22nd; Raleigh, April 23rd; Raleigh, April 24th; Raleigh, April 25th; Raleigh, April 26th; Raleigh, April 27th; Raleigh, April 28th; Raleigh, April 29th; Raleigh, April 30th.

Training School Doing Well.
Hon. J. V. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, just back from a week's trip into Eastern Carolina. He was at Greenville for the organization of the trustees of the Eastern Carolina Training School, and says the preliminary work is progressing finely. They will receive plans from the architects April 15th for the building to be erected at once, at a cost of $100,000. A landscape gardener was engaged to lay off the site, which is donated to the State by Greenville. Mr. Joyner went to Jacksonville also to attend the Southeastern Association of County Superintendents, which was highly profitable and shows fine work being accomplished throughout that section of the State. He returned by Morehead City, where he will confer with the authorities relative to an election for establishing graded schools, soon to be held. The plans are sure of success, so that by opening public schools on an improved graded system.

North Carolina Charters.
Bank Increases Its Stock—Telephone Company. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., March 16.—The Bank of Vance, Burnsville, files an amendment to its charter, increasing the capital to $100,000, with authority to still further increase to $100,000. J. W. Higgins is president.

The North Carolina Telephone Company, of High Point, is chartered, with a subscribed capital of $20,000 and $50,000 authorized, the incorporators being W. H. Ragan, V. J. E. Hayden, E. D. Steele. The company is authorized to construct and operate telephone lines and apparatus in Guilford county, and in the State at large.

Another charter is to the Office and Art Supply Company, of High Point, authorized to do business in Guilford county, and in the State at large.

HE WITHDRAWS THE CHARGE.
Grimes Hasty in Making Charges Against Brother and Wife. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., March 16.—C. L. Grimes, of Charlotte, who came here Saturday and swore out a warrant against wife and his brother, H. R. Grimes, withdrawing the charge and paid the costs of action.

H. R. Grimes and Mrs. Ada Grimes were arrested at 10 o'clock Sunday morning and gave bail for their appearance before a magistrate to-day. The woman in the case was the former wife of H. R. Grimes, but was divorced and afterwards married C. L. Grimes. The woman came here to visit her children by her former husband.

The present husband, who swore out the warrant against his wife and brother upon a statement made to him by a friend. He now expresses regret that he acted so hastily.

SHOWS GAIN IN BUSINESS.

Coast Line Receipts in North Carolina Greater Than a Year Ago.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., March 16.—The reports of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, showing North Carolina business for the quarter ending December 31, 1907, is just filed with the Corporation Commission and shows gross earnings of $1,884,818.15, against $1,814,558.90 for the corresponding quarter of 1906. Operating expenses were $1,210,407.75, against $1,127,715 for the same quarter of the previous year. The total passengers carried was 561,868, against 464,913 for the last quarter of the previous year.

WRECK ON THE SOUTHERN.

BUT NO LIVES ARE LOST

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HIGH POINT, N. C., March 16.—Train No. 141, Asheville division, Southern Railway, was wrecked, overturning five cars turned turtle, but no lives were lost. A year ago a wreck occurred about the same place, and many passengers wounded, then were on the same train to-day. Big damage was done in tearing up tracks and causing bleeding traffic all day. Spreading of rails was the cause of the wreck.

Contract for Wilson Paving.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., March 16.—The condition of Charles A. Davis, who was shot and very seriously wounded by Willie Mothershead, a young woman from Westmoreland county, Va., in a fight yesterday, is favorable, and the physicians believe he will recover unscathed, with the exception of a wound in his head, which they have not been able to extract.

The young woman was formerly employed as a servant in the home of young Davis, at Tidwell, Va., and when the family removed to New Jersey she came to this city, where she was employed as a domestic. She came to this city later and secured employment as clerk in the Baltimore and Ohio offices.

She claims that Davis continued to pay her attentions, but these ceased about a year ago. She shot him because he would not marry her. She says she intended to shoot herself. "Now that it is all over, I would not harm a hair in his head," she said at the house of Detention to-day. She will be held there until Davis is well enough to appear in the Police Court against her.

They Wed in Rooklyn.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEW YORK, March 16.—Harold Eugene Shepherd, twenty-one years old, merchant, and his cousin, Mary Boyle Rogers, the daughter of a prominent family, were married in Rooklyn, Va., the former giving his residence as at No. 502 Roebuck Street, Kings county, Brooklyn, and a half license to be married in Brooklyn, where they had decided to have their wedding.

Both emphatically denied they had eloped or that their relatives opposed their union. When asked where they intended to be married, and who was to perform the ceremony, answers to which under oath are obligatory by all respondents, as a condition precedent to issuing license, they were nonplussed, and had to go out and make arrangements. They returned, said they had arranged to be married in the Baptist Temple, Third Avenue and Schermerhorn Street, by the pastor to-night.

Shepherd's mother, formerly Mary McVeigh, is a sister to Miss Rogers's mother.

J.B. Mosby & Co.

Expert Advice

Miss Castle, Corset Specialist, who thoroughly understands the art of Corset fitting, will be at our Corset Department for two weeks in connection with the demonstration of the renowned

Royal Worcester, Sapphire and Bon Ton Corsets

We urge every lady to take advantage of this rare opportunity to select a new model, through the assistance of our expert, which will meet with the exacting requirements of their particular figures.

Fashion's Latest Style Effects are embodied in these superb models, combined with the finest materials and most exquisite trimmings, imparting to the wearer that individuality and correctness of figure so much sought for by discriminating women.

Prices $1.00 to $15.

lost. A year ago a wreck occurred about the same place, and many passengers wounded, then were on the same train to-day. Big damage was done in tearing up tracks and causing bleeding traffic all day. Spreading of rails was the cause of the wreck.

CONTRACT FOR WILSON PAVING.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., March 16.—The condition of Charles A. Davis, who was shot and very seriously wounded by Willie Mothershead, a young woman from Westmoreland county, Va., in a fight yesterday, is favorable, and the physicians believe he will recover unscathed, with the exception of a wound in his head, which they have not been able to extract.

The young woman was formerly employed as a servant in the home of young Davis, at Tidwell, Va., and when the family removed to New Jersey she came to this city, where she was employed as a domestic. She came to this city later and secured employment as clerk in the Baltimore and Ohio offices.

She claims that Davis continued to pay her attentions, but these ceased about a year ago. She shot him because he would not marry her. She says she intended to shoot herself. "Now that it is all over, I would not harm a hair in his head," she said at the house of Detention to-day. She will be held there until Davis is well enough to appear in the Police Court against her.

They Wed in Rooklyn.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEW YORK, March 16.—Harold Eugene Shepherd, twenty-one years old, merchant, and his cousin, Mary Boyle Rogers, the daughter of a prominent family, were married in Rooklyn, Va., the former giving his residence as at No. 502 Roebuck Street, Kings county, Brooklyn, and a half license to be married in Brooklyn, where they had decided to have their wedding.

Both emphatically denied they had eloped or that their relatives opposed their union. When asked where they intended to be married, and who was to perform the ceremony, answers to which under oath are obligatory by all respondents, as a condition precedent to issuing license, they were nonplussed, and had to go out and make arrangements. They returned, said they had arranged to be married in the Baptist Temple, Third Avenue and Schermerhorn Street, by the pastor to-night.

Shepherd's mother, formerly Mary McVeigh, is a sister to Miss Rogers's mother.

TO BE TRIED FOR MURDER.
Much Interest in Case of Moody Coggins to Be Heard To-Day.

SUFFOLK, VA., March 16.—In the Circuit Court of Southampton County to-morrow the trial of Moody Coggins for the killing of James Pitman will be held. Six attorneys will appear in the case. Coggins, the son of the railroad agent at Boykins, is alleged to have killed Pitman in the store where he clerked.

CHARLOTTE POLICE OFFICER DIES IN STREET CAR.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 16.—W. F. Reynolds, day desk sergeant at the local police station, dropped dead to-night on a street car. Reynolds left his station in his usual health when relieved by the night desk sergeant, and when the car was within a few blocks of his home, fell suddenly in his seat, expiring before he could be removed to his home.

He served a number of years in the army, and was a popular and efficient

For Hebrew School

Academy—Dark. Bijou—The Fool House.

Circus Features in "The Fool House."
The Four Huntings, to say nothing of Master Bob, kept an audience at the Bijou last night laughing for the best part of the trial of Moody Coggins for the killing of James Pitman will be held. Six attorneys will appear in the case. Coggins, the son of the railroad agent at Boykins, is alleged to have killed Pitman in the store where he clerked.

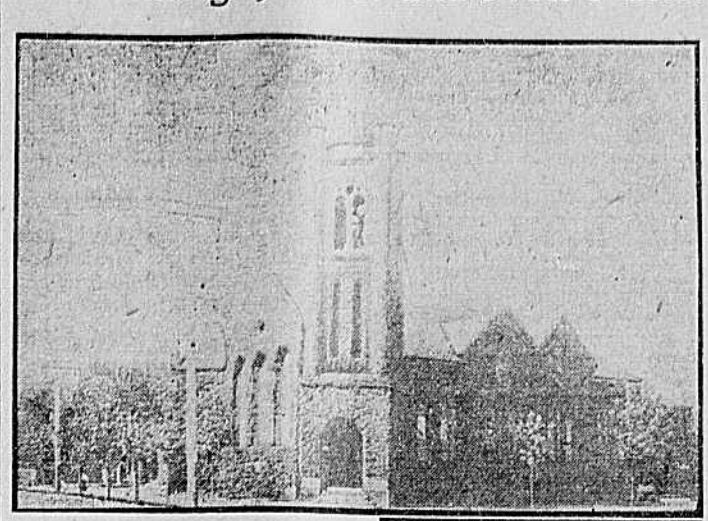

The piece is in two acts and derives its title from the lunatic asylum which figures in the first half of the entertainment. The Huntings are not unknown in Richmond, for they have been here before, and a few times, at least several times, and some twelve years ago Lew. John and Tony—the latter then no taller than his promising young nephew—were in winter quarters in this city with the circus of Bob Hunting, the sire of two of them. From the circus they drifted into vaudeville, and then into musical comedy.

The Huntings are essentially a team of acrobatic dancers, and naturally their work in this line is made a feature of the performance. Both Tony and Lew are gymnasts and acrobats, and they also do a few stunts, and a half, to keep them from forgetting their old tricks of the sawdust ring. Lew Hunting is a comedian on the "tough and go" order, with plenty of quick-fire action, while Tony is more of a pantomimist and employs methods which suggest that he takes after his father, for he is a perfect mimic. The little spry, Master Bob, comes on a few times, just to let folks know he is a member of the family, and will some day, perhaps, come to the rescue of his father and Tony, who last night received a good portion of the applause.

The company carries a chorus and a main quartet, the ever-ready "Four Huntings," who are a fine bunch, receiving half a dozen encores. Richard Hume was grotesque in his makeup and helped a good deal in the comedy work. Harry Wardell, who played a quick-witted character, was also a success. Some of the verses, however, rather suggest the concert of a circus, and perhaps are a little too broad to appeal to everybody in the audience, though they were certainly received with delight by a goodly portion of the house.

TO HEAR ORAL ARGUMENT ON WEST VIRGINIA DEBT MATTER.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—Chief Justice Fuller to-day announced that the Supreme Court of the United States would hear oral arguments during the week of April 6th in the case of the State of Virginia vs. the State of West Virginia, involving the question of the joint responsibility of West Virginia for that part of the debt contracted before the creation of the new State.

Home for Aged Priests.
ROANOKE, VA., March 16.—Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan, of New York, has purchased the beautiful home in this city known as "Greenway Court," the property of R. R. Fairfax, to be used as a home for aged Catholic priests, paying $30,000 for it. It is one of the most beautiful residences in the city.

Second Presbyterian Church,
Raleigh, N. C. and New Pastor

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., March 16.—The accompanying picture shows Rev. W. McC. White, D. D., now of the Second Presbyterian Church, Petersburg, Va., and the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, N. C., the pastorate of which he has accepted, effective April 1st. The Raleigh Church was erected ten years ago at a cost of $37,500, during the pastorate of Dr. Eugene Daniel, now of Lewisburg, W. Va. It has about 100 communicants, and is regarded as one of the very best pastoral fields in the Old North State. Dr. White has had a highly successful five-year pastoral relation with the Petersburg Church. He is a native of Winchester, Va., his father having been for forty years pastor of the Presbyterian Church there. He has filled pastorates in Richmond, Va., and Lewisburg, W. Va.

"DON'T KILL MY PARTNER."
Boy Pleaded With Father, Who Killed Police Friend of Heard.

ASHESVILLE, N. C., March 16.—Paris Sumner, who was killed by James Frady, at Limestone last week, was the boy's best friend and his next-door neighbor. Frady, returning home unexpectedly, surprised his wife and Sumner together.

Sumner and Frady's eight-year-old son were great friends, and the child referred to Sumner as his "partner." He was at the house at the time of the killing, and when his father had shot Sumner and was beating him with the pistol, the boy rushed to the scene, exclaiming: "Papa, that's my partner. Papa, don't kill my partner."

REV. W. McC. WHITE.

VIRGINIA DELEGATION
MAY VOTE FOR BRYAN

Times-Dispatch Bureau, Sunday Building, Washington, D. C., March 16.

It is understood that an effort will be made to have the Virginia delegation vote for Bryan at the national convention. It is known that some of the prominent Democrats of the State who will be members of the State convention will not oppose instructions, since to do so would provoke a fight, from which no good could come, even if successful.

It is conceded that Mr. Bryan will be the nominee, and it is not thought to be good politics to accentuate party differences on the eve of a great contest. It is highly probable that the twenty-four delegates from Virginia will be bound by instructions to cast the vote of the State for William J. Bryan.

Regarding the personnel of the four delegates at large, it is thought likely that the Democratic national convention will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy classes." It is hinted that Senator Aldrich simply wished to take the edge off the arguments of the Senator from Rhode Island has not been surpassed in recent times save by President Roosevelt, and will make a speech to-morrow, in which the Aldrich currency bill will be assailed with great bitterness as being "the interest of the bankers and wealthy